

Retail Solutions

LOC Software Store Management Suite

Electronic Journal

The electronic journal is an essential tool which keeps track of transactions for control and loss prevention purposes. The LOC Store Management Suite's Electronic Journal is available in XML format, so you can search, report and even export information easily. Every key stroke of the operator is kept for reference. Multiple reports and query functions are available, and enhanced options are added on a regular basis.

Specifications

- Advanced searching capability
- List of all transactions by date, cashier or customer
- Search by any function for one cashier or one customer
- Optional saving of every key stroked
- Search for any totalizer for one cashier or one customer
- List for any department sale for one cashier or one customer
- Search for any item sold for one cashier or one customer
- List of item sold by item by hour
- List of all item sold from a batch
- Manager authorizations
- Modified price by cashier
- Free item given by cashier
- Returned items by cashier
- Items by department or sub-department, by customer
- Search by any character

More features

- Video Integration: See from the Electronic journal the live transaction, recall a video clip from any search result.
- Every key stroke is kept in the Electronic Journal
- Advanced searching capability

- Searching by Day, Week, Month, Year, Fiscal Year
- List of all transactions by Date, Operator, Customer, Transaction, Terminal
- Search by any text in the transaction
- Search by any function
 - All tenders, Global discount, Bottle sales/credit, No sales, Suspend, Cancel order, Account payment, Balance/point adjustment, Interest and more...
- Search for any exceptions
 - Bottle sales, Item discount, Correction, Void, Refund, Price modify, Customer age and more...
- Items sales by hour
- Have a history of all price changes for an item
- List of transactions by department and sub-department by operator
- Sales summary by customer including detailed transaction of all purchases
- Customer purchases by department, sub-department and items
- List of manager authorizations
- Keep track of all price changes done a POS
- Returned items by operator
- All transactions by sales person