

Retail Solutions

LOC Software Store Management Suite

Receiving and Billing

The LOC Store Management Suite's Receiving module allows users to manage receiving and cost of goods. Goods receiving can be done through a mobile device or directly from a computer. Multiple reports are also available as decisions making tools.

Specifications

- Purchasing is part of the full purchasing, receiving and billing process
- Receive items using UPC, vendor code or multiple alternate codes
- Import advance shipment notices and invoices from vendors
- Post billing to accounts payable (external software)
- Multiple searching options for items
- Manage direct store delivery (DSD) vendors
- Expected delivery based on vendor delivery schedule
- Global discount/item discount
- Manage back orders
- Receiving from the list of backorder items
- Make sure you received the expected deals
- Enter allowance, discount and rebates
- Deals tracked off and on invoice in percentage or dollars
- Track up to 4 different bill back types
- Comment by item available
- Receiving against a purchase order
- Ability to maintain item from receiving view
- Create or maintain item from buying view
- See all item information while buying
- Combined all item search criteria in one screen
- Quick item lookup using all keys available
- Pick fields displayed in the grids
- The grid position is saved and restored automatically
- Export capability to a payable software

- Send billing to the home office for accounting
- Editor for adjusting receiving/inventory information on screen
- Search through current documents
- Drill down in old documents
- Document transfer between stores or between Host and stores
- Document export available in different formats including XML

Reports

- Final receiving confirmation
- All back orders
- Receiving checks for a date
- One receiving check
- All items on order
- Shorted on order